RE: Silicon Image, Inc. ("SIMG")

Merger Completed -- Cash Settlement

The NASDAQ has informed the CBOE that effective prior to the open of business today, Tuesday, March 10, 2015, a Merger has been completed between Silicon Image, Inc. ("SIMG") and Cayabyab Merger Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Lattice Semiconductor Corporation ("LSCC"). According to the terms of the Merger, each outstanding Share of SIMG Common Stock was converted into the right to receive $7.30 cash, without interest, per SIMG share. Please be aware that Silicon Image, Inc. had been the subject of a tender offer by Cayabyab Merger Company to purchase all outstanding Shares of SIMG Common Stock at $7.30 per SIMG Share, net to the seller in cash, which expired on March 9, 2015 (see CBOE Research Circular #RS15-106, dated February 13, 2015, for more information).

Contract Adjustment

Pursuant to Article VI, Section 11 and 11A of The Options Clearing Corporation's By-Laws, all outstanding SIMG options as of Tuesday, March 10, 2015, will be adjusted to require, upon exercise, the per-contract delivery or receipt of $730.00 in cash. Strike prices will remain the same, and the option symbol will remain SIMG. [Any FLEX series that may exist will be adjusted in a similar manner to the standardized option.]

Please be aware that trading in the adjusted SIMG options will be suspended as of Tuesday, March 10, 2015. There are no restrictions on the exercise of the adjusted SIMG options.

Acceleration of Expirations

Pursuant to OCC Rule 807, equity stock option contracts whose deliverables are adjusted to call for cash-only delivery will be subject to an acceleration of the expiration dates for outstanding option series.

All series of Silicon Image, Inc. options whose expiration dates are after March 20, 2015 will have their expiration dates advanced to Friday, March 20, 2015. Expiration dates occurring before March 20, 2015 (e.g., Flex options) will remain unchanged.
